

International Exchange of Good Practices

Sensitising general public towards LGBT related issues

Brno – Czech Republic

9 – 10 November 2017

The aim of this participatory networking event is to create cross boundary exchange of good practices in sensitising general public towards various LGBT related issues and create one of working groups active in the emerging platform European Network for Nonviolence and Dialogue (ENND).

At PDCS we are now in the process of initiating this new movement/network (ENND) of civic actors interested in peaceful interventions in current value based conflicts in the CEE region. We believe in much stronger voice of joined forces of like minded individuals and organizations who share European values and nonviolent approach.
